Instructor
Linda Stewart

Linda Stewart is a native of Cumberland, Maryland. "I like the beauty of the surrounding hills and the four distinct seasons, especially spring and fall. The colors inspire me to create my art." Primarily self-taught, but now attending Frostburg State University as a full-time art student, Linda enjoys working with paper to create one-of-a-kind collages and paper sculptures. Using cardstock, scrapbooking, and specialty papers, Linda manipulates the papers with traditional tools and techniques associated with paper, to achieve the desired shapes and composition.

Her works have been described as "unique" and "original". Linda is a member of the Allegany County Arts Council, Arts at Canal Place, Mountain City Traditional Arts and the Allegany Area Art Alliance.
